Deep Sense Skin & Hair Care Products

Containing amla oil, enriched with vitamin C

Dr. Akhavi Laboratory Company has gathered the results of the latest scientific achievements and valuable experience of years of production of skin and hair care products along with the up-to-date technological know-how and skill of its specialist team in order to initiate modern developments in the area of creation of skin and hair care products in the market based on the global standards. That's why it has designed and formulated a broad range of skin and hair care products under the brand of "Deep Sense".

"Deep Sense" brand offers a primary care every individual needs for her (his) skin and hair within a package with a beautiful, attractive and lovely appearance in order to secure the satisfaction of consumers by providing the best production performance. This brand combines extracts of natural plants with unique and memorable fragrances to allow the consumer to experience a deep sense of nature at the time of application.

Deep Sense skin and hair care products are enriched with amla oil.

Amla (Indian gooseberry) is an ornamental tree with edible fruits whose name is seen in all traditional medicine scripts of Tibetan, Indian, Arabic, Egyptian and even Greek languages as of the first century A.D. This fruit has been used as an ingredient in herbal formulations including dietary supplements for centuries. Amla oil is traditionally produced by prolonged immersion of dried amla fruit in a base oil such as mineral or vegetable oils after which the oil is filtered and purified for use.

Amla oil is enriched with vitamin C, iron, sodium, complex of vitamin B group, calcium and phosphorus, which is used in preparation of skin and hair care products.

Amla oil properties for skin:

- Reduction of the effect of environmental pollution
- Hydration of skin to cure eczema and psoriasis
- Anti-wrinkle, prevention of pre-mature skin aging

Amla oil properties for hair:

- Stimulation of hair growth
- Prevention of hair loss
- Prevention of early whitening of hair
- Treatment of dandruff

TROPICAL FRUITS

Normal to Dry Skin

TROPICAL FRUITS LINE

For Normal to Dry Skin

The line of tropical fruits products of Deep Sense is suitable for individuals with dry and normal skins. Extracts of the tropical fruits such as mango, shea and avocado contain nutritious ingredients for skin and their combination with effective materials such as amla oil, flaxseed extract, hyaluronic acid and beeswax in Deep Sense products bring health and beauty for your skin. Flax is an endemic plant of East Asia and Mediterranean that its seeds are enriched with nutrients for eating and topical purposes. The valuable benefits of flaxseed are due to the anti-oxidant activity to prevent oxidative stress of the skin, anti-bacterial, anti-microbial, anti-inflammation and stimulation of collagen synthesis. The flaxseed has been used in traditional medicine in the past due to its properties to heal wounds, burns and scars. Hyaluronic acid is a compound which naturally exists in the skin structure and plays an effective role in preserving the skin moisture. This compound functions through retaining moisture by as much as 1000 times of its weight and transferring it to the skin. The level of production of hyaluronic acid in the skin reduces with aging therefore the skin becomes dry, its elasticity decreases and becomes prone to deep wrinkles. Healing and anti-oxidant properties of this compound are among other properties of it.

ORGANIC ROSE WATER

All Skin Types Even Sensitive

ORGANIC ROSE WATER LINE

For All Skin Types Even Sensitive

Deep Sense organic rose products (rose water) is suitable for all skin types specially sensitive skins. Ingredients such as organic rose water, hyaluronic acid, extract of French rose and organic rose and amla oils in the group of Deep Sense rose water products guarantee total care and nutrition of the skin. Rose water is taken from and endemic plant of Western Asia which is used in food and perfume industries beside its long run and massive use in traditional medicine. This valuable liquid is extracted by distillation of the rose petals. It has disinfecting, anti-oxidant, anti-inflammatory, restoring and soothing effects on body and mind. Rose water also has anti-wrinkle and rejuvenating properties that's why it makes the Deep Sense rose water products ideal even for older ages.

The rose water and rose petals used in Deep Sense skin care products are of organic type since no pesticide is used in culturing the roses.
